Wrapping Up AEP & Celebrating an Incredible Year Together

By Kaitlynn Loy, Communication Chair

As the 2026 AEP draws to a close and we prepare to turn the page on another year, we want to take a moment to recognize just how much we've achieved—side by side. This season asked a lot from every one of us: long days, countless conversations, problem-solving on the fly, and an unwavering dedication to doing right by the people we serve. And once again, we all rose to the challenge with heart, professionalism, and purpose.

AEP is always a defining time of year, but what truly makes it meaningful is the way we support one another through it. Each enrollment, each tough case, each client we guided or reassured reflects the strength of our collective effort. Together, we've helped families gain clarity, security, and peace of mind—and that impact lasts far beyond December.

As we close out the year, we invite you to pause with us, take a breath, and fully appreciate the difference we've made. It's been a season of growth, collaboration, and shared wins, and we couldn't be prouder of what our chapter of individuals and agencies have accomplished.

To celebrate the end of AEP and welcome a bright new year, please join us for our Annual Celebration Luncheon on January 8 at 11:00 AM. Let's gather, reflect, share stories, enjoy good company, and start 2026 with renewed energy and gratitude. We look forward to celebrating you and everything we've built as a chapter.

From The President's Corner

A Minute with our Chapter President, Jessica Croquart

As we reach the end of another year, I find myself looking back with genuine appreciation for the people who make this chapter what it is. Each of you has contributed in your own way—through your expertise, your time, your advocacy, and your willingness to show up when it mattered most. This season reminded me once again that our strength isn't found in numbers, but in the character and commitment of our members.

The work we do is never simple, and this year brought its share of changes and challenges. Yet, time and again, you demonstrated resilience and professionalism. Whether you were helping clients navigate new benefits, supporting fellow agents, or staying engaged in our chapter's mission, your efforts made a real and lasting impact.

As we prepare for the year ahead, I'm encouraged by the momentum we've built together. We have an opportunity to continue shaping our industry, supporting one another, and bringing meaningful guidance to the communities we serve. I'm proud of what we've accomplished—and even more excited for what comes next.

I hope you'll join us on January 8 at 11:00 AM for our Appreciation Luncheon, where we can gather, reflect, and celebrate the year in good company.

Thank you for your dedication, your professionalism, and your continued belief in the work we do. Warm wishes for a restful and joyful end to the year.
